

Plantation Memories Index

Page numbers in italics represent illustrations.

- absolute depersonalization, 69
abstracting, 48–9
academia, 27–35, 33n, 38. See also knowledge Africa, 117
Afros, 75–6. See also hair agency, 24–5
aggression, 42, 74, 118–9
Alicia (interviewee): choosing to interview, 46; denied Blackness, 92; and hair, 72, 73–5; language and decolonization, 133–4; N-word and M-word hierarchy, 93, 95; questions of national origin, 64, 67, 68–9; strangers greeting, 135, 136, 137–8; and white mother, 72–3, 133–4; on white mothers with Black children, 86, 88 alienation, 18, 97, 119–20, 126, 152
All About Love: New Visions (hooks), 145
ambivalence, 154
Anastácia (enslaved African), 14, 15–6n3, 15 anger, 150–1 anonymity, 143
Anthias, Floya, 58 anxiety: avoiding, 73; and control, 76; diminishing, 140; vs. guilt, 21; and negation, 153; and perfectionism, 152; of strangers' greetings, 136
associative chains, 78–9
Ayim, May, 133, 133n39
- Barker, Martin, 65n17 becoming, 10, 10n2, 11, 36
Beloved (Morrison), 123
Beyond the Principle of Pleasure (Freud), 140–1
Bhabha, Hommi, 60 bias, 30, 30n
Black children: N-word and M-word, 94–7, 133; in school, 34; white mothers denying Blackness, 92, 97; white mothers' fears for, 86–9; white mothers not listening to, 72–3, 134
Black Looks: Race and Representation (hooks), 34n
Black men: and Black women, 59–60, 125; Fanon's use of 'man,' 60; humiliating, 85; and lynching, 102n; and lynching, 85; masculinity, 54, 60, 85; and patriarchy, 59; in racist game, 82n26; in racist joke, 82–3; and white men, 59, 82–3, 85–6, 103, 124; and white women, 102n, 132
Black people: in academia, 25–9; as 'bad,' 16–7; as confidants, 118–20; and confused feelings, 150–1; creating new discourses, 30–1; denied history, 117–8; ego defense mechanisms, 153–4; equating with animals, 75, 76–7, 77n25, 95; exchanging greetings, 135–8; in film, 18; focusing on self, 148; identifying with other Black people, 96–7, 135–8; invasion of bodies, 72–4, 142, 145, 147, 148–9; knowledge of history, 25; margins and centres, 31–6, 111 (see also segregation); and 'race' as most important, 54; reduced to bodies, 102–3; as representatives, 114–5; responses to racism, 151–3; as separate from 'Other,' 119–20; 'in their place,' 131; as threatening, 96–7; wanting to be understood, 150; and white gaze, 67–9, 146
Black women: and Black men, 59–60, 125; and decolonization, 60–1 (see also decolonization); as double 'Otherness,' 124; as hybrid phenomenon, 55; invisible in Fanon's texts, 60; invisible in Western feminism, 54, 56–8; as mothers, 87–8; and natural hair, 75–6; and Oedipus complex desire, 86; and racial rape, 102n; sexualized, 86–9; and strength stereotype, 124–7; and 'third space,' 54–5; as threatening, 86–9; and white men, 52–3, 76–9, 82–3
Blackness, 92, 95, 97, 115–6 book overview, 11–2, 44–50
Bordieu, Pierre, 33, 33n8 boundaries, 149–50. See also national boundaries
- Canada, 34n
Carby, Hazel, 57, 59
Caruth, Cathy, 143
castration, 85
centres, 25–6, 29, 31–3, 35. See also margins children. See Black children; white children cognitive detachment, 131–2
Collins, Patricia Hill, 24, 34, 125 colonialism: and asking origins, 66–7; benefits and white women, 57; and denial, 14; European Expansion, 100, 100n32; and fantasized dirtiness, 74; in film, 77n25; and hair, 75, 76; hostile classifications, 94, 94n, 96; and knowledge, 27; loss of, 77, 147; mask as symbol of, 14; and N-word, 100, 101; and Oedipus complex, 86; present experiences, 101–2; resisting, 10–1 (see also decolonization); in school, 34; and silent subaltern, 24–5; and stealing children, 87; trauma and everyday racism, 138, 140, 146–8. See also slavery colorblindness, 21 confused feelings, 150–1 conscious subjectivity, 45 constructed difference, 40 contagion, 74
control, 134, 149
- decivilization, 42–3
decolonization: overview, 146–7; in academia, 30; autonomy, 152–3; of Black women, 60–1; boundaries, 148–50; changing relations, 150–1;

Plantation Memories Index

- exchanging greetings, 137–8; and hair, 75–6; of imagination, 36; of knowledge, 32–3; and language, 133–4; and ‘Other’ to self, 154; of self, 147–8; and white reactions to, 133–4; writing as political, 10–1
- defense mechanisms, 15, 20–1, 116, 153–4
- denial, 14–6, 20–1, 92, 97
- dependency, 148–9
- depersonalization, 69
- Derrida, Jacques, 24
- difference, 40, 65, 72
- dirtiness, 73–4, 109, 110–1, 145
- dirty history, 20, 20n5
- discrimination, 40, 106. See also racism; racism, everyday
- displacement, 78
- dissociation, 78, 115–6
- dolls, 130–2
- ‘Double Buren,’ 55
- Douglas, Mary, 110–1
- ego, 20–1
- ego defense mechanisms, 15, 20–1, 116, 153–4
- envy, 85, 102, 102n
- episodic analysis, 48
- epistemology, 27, 44
- eroticization, 42–3
- Escrava Anastácia (enslaved African), 14, 15–6n3, 15
- Essed, Philomena: on hybrid phenomenon, 55; racism as subtle, 104; on racism studies, 38, 45, 49; on responsibility, 131–2; on white neighborhoods, 110
- exchanging greetings, 135–8
- exotification, 68–9, 102, 109–10, 115–6
- Fanon, Frantz: absolute depersonalization, 69; and gender, 60; on margins and centres, 34–5; mirror stage, 103; on Oedipus complex, 86; on skin tone, 95; on trauma, 143; triangular constellation arenas, 105; triple existence, 114–5; white imaginary, 17–9; as whole, 49
- Fantasizing Black women in Black Skin, White Masks* (Young), 60
- Farbe bekennen* (Oguntoye, Schulze and Ayim), 116–7, 116–7n36, 133
- fear, 78
- feminism: and anti-racism, 57–8; and interpretations, 28; and invisibility of Black women, 54, 56–8; racism vs. sexism, 55–6; research among equals, 44; and sisterhood, 56–7
- fish in water, 33, 33n
- ‘foreigners,’ 118–20. See also national boundaries
- Freud, Sigmund, 19, 140–1
- frustration, 153–4
- Gaines, Jane, 58
- Garner, Margaret, 123
- gender, 28, 52–61, 105–6, 120. See also sexism
- gendered racism, 52–61, 125
- geography, 35–6, 108–11. See also national boundaries
- ghetto, as term, 66n20
- ghettoization, 66, 109
- Ghosts of Slavery* (Sharpe), 146
- Gilroy, Paul, 20
- gloves, 108–9
- Great Mothers of the Black Race, 124–5
- guilt, 21, 73, 84
- hair, 72–9, 142, 145
- Hall, Stuart, 35, 36
- healing, 130–8
- heterosexuality, 54
- hidden history, 10
- hierarchical values, 40–1
- hierarchy, 57, 93–6, 94n
- history and slavery, 117–8. See also slavery
- hooks, bell: on becoming, 36; books banned, 34n; knowledge and pain, 31; on love and union, 145; margins and centres, 35, 36; and ‘against’ position, 36; sexism and race, 60; subjects/objects, 10–1; white women and racism, 58; whiteness terrorizing, 104
- humiliation, 85
- idealization, 126
- imaginary of white people: overview, 17–8, 95; and Black dolls, 131; Black skin as ‘dirty,’ 109, 110–1; Black women as ‘wild,’ 74; and N-word, 95–6; protection from, 93; of Roma, 87; and triangulated isolation, 132
- immature behavior, 73
- immigrants, 39, 78
- imperialism, 57
- independency, 148–9
- infantilization, 43, 131
- Initiative of Black People in Germany, 133, 133n38
- Initiative Schwarze Menschen in Deutschland*, 133, 133n38
- intellectualization, 21
- interpretation. See over-interpretation
- intersectionality, 52–3, 55
- invisibility: and Black masculinity, 54, 60–1; denying Blackness, 92, 97; and disturbed white society, 38–9; and trauma, 143; and white women, 54, 56–7, 122
- isolation, 84, 109–10, 122–3. See also triangular constellation arenas
- Kathleen (interviewee): and Africa, 117; and Black

Plantation Memories Index

- women stereotypes, 124, 125–6; choosing to interview, 46; living in white neighborhood, 109; mother's suicide, 122, 123; neighbor's Black slave doll, 130, 131; N-word trauma, 100, 103; racist confessions/aggressions, 118–9; and racist joke, 82; as representative, 114, 115–6; segregation of town, 108–9; triangular constellation experience, 104, 131
- Kilomba, Grada: in academia, 28–9, 31–2, 33–4; analysis of research, 48–50; choosing interviewees, 45–6; interviewing approach, 46–7; and Lisbon neighborhood, 65–6, 65–6n19; servant proposal, 52; as subject, 10; subject-oriented research, 45; writing book, 10–1
- “King Kong” (film), 77n25
- knowledge, 25–8, 32–3. See also academia
- Ku Klux Klan (KKK), 82–3, 83n
- LGBTQ+ people, 54
- listening, 19–22, 34, 72–3, 134
- Lorde, Audre, 29
- lynching, 85, 102n
- Malcolm X, 36
- ‘mammies,’ 87
- Marginality in the Teaching Machine* (Spivak), 33
- margins: in academia, 29–32; and centres, 31–6; as dangerous, 35; and dirtiness, 111; and empathy, 105; laws about, 35; racism only in, 38; as space of possibility, 35–6. See also centres
- Marriott, David, 108
- masculinity, 54, 60, 85
- mask of speechlessness, 14, 15, 16n
- Mecheril, Paul, 38, 39, 40, 44, 111, 119
- media, 18, 77n25, 125
- Mercês (Lisbon neighborhood), 65–6, 65–6n17
- Mirza, Heidi Safia, 54
- modern primitivism, 68
- Morrison, Toni, 17, 20n5, 123
- mouths, 14–5, 19
- murder, 83n, 85
- M*-word, 93–5, 133–4
- national boundaries: beautifulness/ugliness, 111; Blackness as outside, 64–9, 117, 144, 148–9; immigrants as illegal, 78; and power, 66–7; and separation, 144
- nationality, 41, 41n
- natural hair, 75–6, 145. See also hair
- Nazism, 94
- negation, 21, 92–3, 92n, 137, 153
- neighborhoods, 65–6, 65–6n17, 65–6n19, 108–11, 110n
- neutrality, 30, 30n
- new racism, 64–5, 64–5nn16–17, 68. See also racism; racism, everyday
- nondirective interviews, 46–7
- not listening as oppression, 73
- N*-word, 93–6, 100–6, 133–4, 146
- objects/objectivity, 10, 39. See also subjects/subjectivity
- Oedipus complex, 85–6
- oppression, 16–7, 36, 38, 42, 73, 83n
- ‘Other’: Black people as, 11, 17, 18; Black people as separate from, 119–20; civilizing, 78; as ‘decivilized,’ 42; and decolonization, 154; exposing biographies, 67; as forced embodiment, 42; knowledge of, 19; and nature, 102; as objects, 39; in own country, 64–9, 117; in own neighborhood, 65–6; reference point to, 40; shock of, 144; and vocabulary, 43
- ‘Otherness’: in academia, 26; antagonism to self, 16–7; and motherhood, 87; ‘Other’ of, 124; personification of repression, 17; and suicide, 122, 124; writing as opposition to, 11
- Outlaw Culture* (hooks), 34n
- over-interpretation, 28
- over-sensitivity, 85
- Pajaczkowska, Claire, 140
- parents, 85–6
- Parry, Benita, 24
- patriarchy, 59–60. See also gender; gendered racism; sexism
- perfectionism, 34–5, 151–2
- performance, 69, 114–6, 122
- phenomenological interpretation, 49
- Phoenix, Ann, 134
- plantation as metaphor, 140
- political correctness, 93
- ‘positive racism,’ 68, 115–6
- postcolonial theory, 49
- power: in academia, 25–9, 31–2; and boundaries, 149–50; doctor/patient, 52–3; of dominant discourse, 24; gendered racism, 52–3; in geography, 108–9; invasion of bodies, 72; and nationality, 66–7; and racism definition, 41; of trauma, 143; white people protecting, 133–4; of white women, 28
- prejudice, 41–2
- primitivization: in academia, 26; defined, 43; and exotification, 68, 102 (see also exotification); hair, 75, 76; and N-word, 101
- privileges, 22, 56–7
- projection: and denial, 20; exotification, 102; and oppression, 42; ‘Other’ and self, 16–7, 68; of wildness/dirtiness, 74, 145

Plantation Memories Index

- 'race': vs. gender, 57–61, 120; and gender in triangulated isolation, 105–6, 120; hierarchy through hostile classifications, 93–6; and national boundaries, 64–9, 117, 144, 148–9; as not mattering, 21; as primary focus, 59–60
- racial contagion, 74, 108–11, 110
- racial epidermal schema, 114–5
- racial sadism, 83
- racism: and acknowledging impact, 148; as bodies out of place, 29, 31–2; categorical experience of, 119; comfort in, 119; defining, 40–1, 149; and denial, 14–6, 20–1; as discursive, 77, 101, 115; experiencing as schizophrenia, 79; feminism ignoring, 57–8 (see also gendered racism); as haunting, 143–4; institutional, 42 (see also academia); and intersectionality, 55; as located in margins, 38; and logical justifications, 21; minimizing, 133–4; and nationality, 64–9, 144, 148–9; and 'Other'/'Otherness,' 42, 43–4; 'positive,' 68, 115–6; and power, 41; perfect responses to, 151–3; as psychological and physical trauma, 103–4; and realities, 28, 35, 38–9; vs. sexism, 55–6; and sexism as inseparable, 52; sexism as insignificant to, 54; spaces to perform, 84; structural, 41–2; and subjectivity, 148; as subtle, 104; and suicide, 122–3; unspoken in academia, 38; victims as disregarded, 38; as violating subjectivity, 40
- racism, everyday: and colonialism, 101–2, 140, 146–8; defined, 42–3; new racism, 64–5, 64–5nn16–17, 68; and slavery, 140; timelessness of, 11; and trauma, 18–9, 141–6; triangulated isolation, 84, 104–6 (see also triangular constellation arenas); as violence, 141, 143
- racism, everyday (episodes): in academia, 26, 28, 31–2; Black slave dolls, 130, 131; country 'Otherness,' 64, 66, 67, 116–7; exotification, 68, 85, 115–6; hair and invasion of bodies, 72, 73–4, 75; ignoring Blackness, 92; and media, 18; minimization of racism, 133–4; neighborhood 'Otherness,' 65–6; N-word and M-word hierarchy, 93, 95; N-word trauma, 96, 100, 103, 104; performing perfection, 114, 115–6; racial sadism, 82; repressing history, 135, 136, 137; segregation of towns, 108, 109; stereotypes of Black women, 125–6; and suicide, 122, 123; triangulated isolation, 131; white confessions/aggressions, 118–9; white mothers of Black children, 86, 88; wild fantasies, 77–8
- racist games, 82n26
- racist jokes, 82–5
- rationalization, 19, 21
- recognition, 22
- regression, 73
- reparation, 22, 152, 154
- repression, 19–20, 136–7, 140
- resistance, 10–1, 36, 75–6, 77n24. See also decolonization
- responsibility, 131–2
- Reynolds, Tracey, 125
- Roma, 87
- romanticization, 25, 36
- Salvation: Black People and Love* (hooks), 145
- Sam-La Rose, Jacob, 10
- scholarship. See academia
- science, 27, 64n
- seduction, 84–5
- segregation, 108–11
- self-perception, 21
- separation, 141–2, 144–5
- sexism, 52, 54, 55–6, 60. See also gender; gendered racism; patriarchy
- Sexism and the Black Female Slave Experience* (hooks), 87
- sexuality, 42–3, 54, 74, 85–6, 102n
- shame, 21
- shame-pride dynamic, 101
- Sharpe, Jenny, 146
- shock, 11, 136, 140, 141–4, 152. See also trauma
- Showing Our Colors* (Oguntoye, Schulze and Ayim), 116–7, 116–7n36, 133
- silence: in academia, 25–6; and hidden history, 10; vs. listening, 19; and marginality, 24; and mask of speechlessness, 14; racism victims, 38
- silent subalterns, 24–5
- Simmonds, Felly Nkweto, 32–3, 33n8
- sisterhood, 56–7
- skin tone, 94–6
- slavery: African Slave Trade specifics, 135–6; and Black slave dolls, 130–1; Black women as mothers, 87; and everyday racism, 140; and hair, 75; healing from, 138; and knowing history, 117–8; loss of, 130–1; masking slaves, 14–5, 15, 16n3; and N-word, 101; and separation, 145; suicide, 16n3, 122–3; "10 kleiner N." song, 76–7, 77n24; as timeless, 118, 145–6. See also colonialism
- somatization, 103
- spaces/geography, 35–6, 108–11. See also centres; margins; national boundaries; segregation
- speaking, 20, 24–6, 38–9
- Spiegel* (magazine), 39
- Spivak, Gayatri C., 24–5, 33
- splitting, 16, 20
- Staeuble, Irmingard, 27, 30
- stereotypes: of Black women as strong, 124–7; of gender/ 'race' constructs, 52–3; in media, 18, 125
-